

Welcome back!

Sometimes older people feel that they don't have too much to give to the life of the church, but years of Christian experience can be invaluable to keep the church from repeating some of the mistakes of the past. If we can avoid being stuck in our traditions (which are provisional), we can encourage the next generation to embrace fully biblical principles (which are permanent!)

This year promises to be momentous, with Stephen Gaukroger joining us and using our 'NEW' dining and accommodation facilities.

The program will include inspiration messages, singing and a choice of practical seminars. There will be a bookshop on location, as well as great food and fellowship. Bring along a friend to be encouraged and transformed through God's word.

A letter to my younger self
