FURNISHED HOUSES.—For the most part the friends gathering at Upwey reside in furnished houses, which are taken for either eleven days or a fortnight. Those forming a house party generally divide the work and expense amongst themselves, and find this a most economical way of spending the holiday. The cost varies according to the household management and general arrangements, but usually runs from £2 to £3 for the fortnight. It is necessary for all accommodated in furnished houses to bring their own linen (bed and table) and cutlery, also a good rug.

BOARDING HOUSES.—Arrangements are also made with the local boarding houses at charges from 35/- to £3 per week. One or two private boarding houses are also arranged for by the Convention Committee, where the charges are about 50/- per week.

YOUNG MEN'S CAMP.—A Canvas Camp for young men is also provided on the Convention grounds. Application for beds should be made early, but any having their own camp equipment can be accommodated at the last moment. The charge for use of camp stretcher, meals, etc., will be 32/6 for ten days. December 23—January 2, covering the Convention meetings, or 4/6 per day for a few days.
